

The Mock Clinic

“It is a wonderful learning experience; students look forward to this annual event” says Mr. Dennis Klima, PT. Third year physical therapy students especially enjoy sharing their clinical experiences with other students in the program. Third year students become mock patients for a morning of physical therapy interventions by the 2nd year physical therapy students. Local area Physical Therapists also participate in the teaching lab.

