

Arthur "Art" Laster

ART LASSITER
BUFFALO BILLS

Arthur "Art" Laster was inducted into the Hawk Hall of Fame in 1984. In the fall of 1965, Arthur played his last game for Tolleston High School in Gary, Indiana.

From 1966 to 1969, Arthur had an outstanding career at Maryland State College (MSC) as a 6'4" and 280 pound starting offensive guard, while lettering in football, track and basketball.

In addition, Arthur was named to the All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (C IAA) Team and the Pittsburgh Courier All-American Team.

In 1970, the Oakland Raiders drafted Arthur in the fourth round of the National Football League draft. Arthur was traded to the Buffalo Bills where he played offensive tackle.

During his four-year career, the MSC Hawk football program compiled a respectable record of 15 wins, 1 tie and 14 losses.
