James Madison Junior Fellowships are awarded to outstanding college seniors and college graduates without teaching experience who intend to become secondary school teachers of American history, American government, or social studies in grades 7–12. Junior Fellows are expected to complete a master's degree in two academic years of full-time study at any accredited institution of higher education in the United States.

Application is due every year on March 1.

All information and application here: http://jamesmadison.gov/