September 9, 2013

Dear Retia Walker, Ph.D.,

The Susquehanna Township School District is a midsized, suburban, public school district which serves students from Susquehanna Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania. The school district is located in suburban Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and consists of two elementary schools, a middle school, a high school, and a kindergarten program. The Susquehanna Township School District encompasses approximately 17 square miles. It serves a resident population in excess of 20,000 people. The Susquehanna Township School District provides an excellent array of educational services to diverse group of approximately 2,900 pupils through the employment of approximately 245 teachers, 168 full-time and part-time support personnel, and 41 building level administrators. The Susquehanna Township School District, serves a diverse community, and strives to provide all students varied educational opportunities in a safe environment enabling them to develop into productive, responsible citizens and lifelong learners.

The Susquehanna Township School District boasts a rich history of academic excellence. This excellence is a reflection of the quality of the dedicated professionals who service students. At Susquehanna Township School District, we believe that hiring professional staff is a critical piece in sustaining the academic excellence that has long been associated with our School District. As such, the Susquehanna Township School District is in the constant pursuit and recruitment of passionate, student-centered teachers who are clear about the purpose and mission of education. The District is dedicated to seeking out such professionals and we are contacting you in hopes that you might inform your graduates and perspective graduates on how they might access the potential opportunities that exist within the Susquehanna Township School District.

Applications for employment can be submitted electronically via PAREAP.net. In addition, candidates can learn more about the Susquehanna Township School District by visiting us on the web at www.hannasd.org. The Susquehanna School District is a great place to live and work.

Please do not hesitate to call me if I can provide additional information.

Kind Regards,

Dr. Cathy L. Taschner
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Striving For A Superior Education For ALL Students