

James “Butch” Duncan

James “Butch” Duncan was inducted into the Hawk Hall of Fame in 1975. James came to Maryland State College (MSC) from Barr Street High School in Lancaster, South Carolina. At 6-foot-4 and 200 pounds, James was an outstanding all-around athlete.

James, a quarterback and defensive safety on the football team, also played baseball and basketball while at MSC. James received All-Central Inter-collegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) honors in 1967 for his athletic prowess in football.

In 1968 James played in the College All-Star game in Chicago. The Baltimore Colts drafted James in 1968 as a punt returner and defensive back. James grew up with Bill

Belk, another Hawk who turned pro in 1968. James was one of six Hawks who played in the 1968 Super Bowl.

During his four years at MSC, James helped lead MSC to an overall record of 19 wins, 11 losses and 1 tie. James graduated from MSC in 1967 with a degree in Industrial Arts Education. James’s career statistics with in the NFL are as follows:
