Title: The Frank J. Trigg Scholarship Fund

Established: In May 1995 by Melva Trigg Currier, in memory of Frank J. Trigg

Purpose: To honor the memory of Mr. Frank J. Trigg, who was principal of the Princess Anne Academy (now the University of Maryland Eastern Shore) from 1902-1910, by awarding an annual scholarship to a student pursuing a degree within the Department of Education, in good academic standing (3.0 GPA).

(Contact the Department of Education to apply.)

Requirements:
1) 3.0 GPA or higher
2) Good academic standing