Title: The Seidel Award in Computer Science Fund

Established: In February 1986 by Samuel W. Seidel

Purpose: To recognize an academically talented upper division computer science major from the Eastern Shore of Maryland who has demonstrated outstanding potential for leadership and service.

(Contact the Department of Math and Computer Sciences to apply.)

Requirements:
1) Junior or Senior Computer Science major
2) GPA 3.0
3) Letter of application
4) Three recommendations, at least one of which must be from a Computer Science faculty member